

To research candidate voting records, campaign endorsements, and policy positions for your specific Lehigh County ballot, you can utilize the following nonpartisan databases, state tracking tools, and local resources:

1. Researching Voting Records (For Incumbents)

Federal Office (U.S. House PA-07)

- GovTrack: Search roll-call votes, bill sponsorships, and legislative attendance for U.S. Representative Ryan Mackenzie.
- Vote Smart: Provides unbiased voting histories, key votes, and interest group ratings for federal candidates.

Pennsylvania State Legislature (PA Senate & PA House)

- Official PA General Assembly Portal: Look up state senators (such as Nick Miller or Lisa Boscola) and state representatives directly on the state legislature website to view their roll-call votes, committee assignments, and sponsored bills.
- ACLU-PA Legislative Scorecard: Tracks state lawmaker voting records specifically on civil liberties, privacy, criminal justice reform, and voting rights.
- Pennsylvania Taxpayer Scorecard: Scores PA state representatives and senators on budget votes, tax legislation, and government spending.

2. Checking Endorsements & Candidate Positions

Nonpartisan Voter Guides

- Vote411 (League of Women Voters): Enter your residential address to generate a customized ballot preview featuring candidate responses to standardized Q&A questionnaires and listed endorsements.
- NAACP Pennsylvania Voter Guide: Provides nonpartisan summaries of candidate stances on civil rights, education, and economic development policies.
- iVoterGuide Pennsylvania Directory: Evaluates candidate backgrounds, donor sources, and policy endorsements from a conservative perspective.
- Ballotpedia: Profile pages for candidates list formal endorsements from local officials, trade unions, political action committees (PACs), and news outlets.

Major Special Interest & Advocacy Scorecards

- Labor Unions: Check endorsement slates from the PA AFL-CIO, Pennsylvania State Education Association (PSEA), and the Pennsylvania Professional Fire Fighters Association.
- Business & Commerce: Review ratings from the PA Chamber of Business and Industry and the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB).
- Issue Advocacy: Look up candidate grades from Planned Parenthood PA PAC, Pro-Life Federation of PA, Sierra Club PA Chapter, and the Gun Owners of America / NRA.

3. Local Lehigh Valley Media & Local Resources

- The Morning Call (Allentown): Publishes local candidate election guides, candidate Q&As, and editorial board endorsement letters ahead of Election Day.
- LehighValleyNews.com / PBS39: Offers nonpartisan local reporting, candidate profiles, and broadcasted candidate debates for PA-07 and Lehigh Valley legislative races.
- Spotlight PA: Provides statewide investigative coverage, campaign finance breakdowns, and candidate comparison tools.
- Lehigh County Democratic Committee Voter Resources & Lehigh County Republican Committee: Party websites list official party-endorsed candidate slates for local, county, and judicial offices.

4. Official Sample Ballots

Before casting your vote, confirm your voter details on the PA Voter Services Status Portal or download an address-specific sample ballot from the Lehigh County Voter Registration Office to review every candidate and ballot referendum exactly as it will appear in your booth.