

Measure	What It Proposes	"YES" Vote Means	"NO" Vote Means
Question 1: Election Commission Expansion	Expands the County Board of Elections from 3 to 5 voting members (2 Democrats, 2 Republicans, and 1 member from the 3rd largest political group, such as an Independent or unaffiliated voter) and removes the County Executive.	APPROVES adding 2 board members, granting non-affiliated voters a designated seat, and removing County Executive conflicts.	REJECTS change, keeping the existing 3-member board (1 Democrat, 1 Republican, and the County Executive).
Question 2: Legal Newspaper Notices	Allows the county to publish official public notices in at least 1 newspaper of general circulation instead of requiring 2 separate newspapers.	APPROVES reducing print publication mandates to 1 newspaper to lower county advertising costs.	REJECTS change, maintaining the legal requirement to advertise in 2 local print newspapers.
Question 3: Retirement Board Seat	Removes the requirement that the Chair of the Board of Commissioners personally hold a seat on the County Retirement Board, allowing Commissioners to designate any member.	APPROVES granting the Board of Commissioners flexibility to assign any member to pension board oversight.	REJECTS change, keeping the pension board seat assigned specifically to the Board Chair.

Key Decision Factors

Question 1: Election Commission Structure

- Vote YES if: You believe non-party/Independent voters deserve official representation in election oversight and want to remove potential conflicts when a sitting County Executive is on the ballot.
- Vote NO if: You want to avoid increasing county administrative positions, board stipends, or changing the long-standing 3-member setup.

Question 2: Public Notice Publications

- Vote YES if: You want to eliminate duplicate advertising expenses in print media as readership shifts to digital channels.
- Vote NO if: You want to preserve broad public notice outreach across multiple print newspapers and support local print media revenue.

Question 3: Retirement Board Assignment

- Vote YES if: You want the Board of Commissioners to assign whoever has the most financial or human resources expertise to handle county employee pensions.
- Vote NO if: You believe the highest-ranking legislative leader (the Board Chair) should remain directly accountable for pension governance.
